Improving Nicely

Robert Read returned from San Francisco Sunday last. He went below for surgical treatment, and was operated upon for hernia. He is getting along nicely, but will not be able to do any hard labor such as hauling logs for some time. He has rented the rooms at W. R. Peek's and will move his family from the ranch near Clinton shortly.

JACKSON CITY ITEMS

Local Happenings About Amador's County Seat

Mr and Mrs Doyle, Mrs Parker Judge Fred V. Wood, and Dr. Boyson were the guests of Mr and Mrs H. E.
Potter, at a luncheon served at the Potter home on Sunday last at Plymouth.

Miss Josie Mason came up from San Francisco to see her father, J. D.
Mason, who is very ill.

Dr. A. M. Gall and wife returned home Saturday evening from a very enjoyable trip to Humboldt county.

B. F. Taylor, foreman of the Zeila mill, returned home Tuesday, after a vacation of over two weeks, in company with Mrs Taylor, to Carson City Nev. Mrs Taylor will return in a week or so.

L. J. Craddock, the genial clerk in the Red Front store, returned to Jackson last Friday evening, after several weeks' vacation at Sacramento and San Francisco.

Steam Laundry Sold

C. E. Jarvis has sold the Amador Steam Laundry business at Sutter Creek to the Lagomarsino brothers of Volcano. There are three brothers interested in the purchase—Joseph, William and Edward, and they will devote their whole attention to the business. They took possession on the 1st of September. The business is in a thriving condition, and commands a large trade not only in Amador county, but also in Calaveras and El Dorado counties.

Enjoyable Party

Mr and Mrs George Vela held a most enjoyable party at their new home on Broadway in honor of Miss Mazie Garbarino and Andrew Garbarino of San Francisco, who are spending a few weeks vacation in Jackson among friends.

Various games were indulged in, and the popular game of 500 was played, pretty and unique prizes were given,
and refreshments served.

Following is a list of those present: Mazie Garbarino, Grace Sutherland, Roma Spagnoli, Emma Palmini, Louise Cassinelli, Emma Parrow, Lena Burgin, Stella Ratto, Andrew Garbarino, Dr. Blake Franklin, Fred Eudey, Wm Schroeder, James Fontenrose, Julius Piccardo, Charles Cademartori, Jos. Ratto, Ernest Spagnoli, Jack Thomas, Alphonse Burgin.

Vela's new home is receiving its finishing touches on the exterior. It is a very attractive and convenient residence. The interior wood work is of exceptional beauty. Harry Cobb, a local painter, had the work in charge, and has given every inch of the interior wood work a satin piano finish, which is greatly admired by all who see it.

Program Well Rendered

Jackson Military band delighted a large assemblage, congregated in front of Love's hall, on Saturday evening last, by rendering a very elaborate program consisting of such selections as "Meditation," by C. S.
Morrison, and "Woodland" selection by Gustav Luters. The entire concert was very ably rendered and received much praise. In the second part of the program, and in the 5th selection, a beautiful and unique piece was played by request, entitled "Ciribiribin." The piece was composed by the band director, Archie S. Moore, and was excellently handled.

Mrs. McIntire Buried

Mrs McIntire, aged 90 years, a resident of the county for nearly 60 years, passed into eternity on Sunday last and was laid to her last resting place on Tuesday afternoon at Volcano, Rev. Nicholas of the Methodist Episcopal church of Jackson officiating at the funeral.

The deceased has been a widow for more than 30 years, and leaves to mourn her demise two daughters, Mrs Benjamin Ross of Volcano and Mrs J.
F. Goodman, who resides about eight miles above Volcano.

REVOLVERS FLOURISHED

Amador City Fighters Face Very Serious Charges

Amador City was furnished with excitement on Monday evening last by a fight in which two pistols were flourished. The only serious damage done was suffered by Manuel Lopez, who was bitten on the chin by John Delucchi during the altercation.

According to the information that we received of the fracas, it seems a miner named Lopez asked Delucchi, who is shift boss at a mine located in Amador, to reemploy him, he having quit his job some time back.

Lopez claims Delucchi said he would take him back providing he would advance $10 for his job. This, to be sure, is denied by Delucchi, who claims he never suggested or inferred in any way, a deal of the above character.

On Monday evening, as Delucchi was seated in front of the Amador hotel, Lopez happened by, and De-lucchi hailed him, intending to enter a conversation as he claims. A few unsavory words were exchanged and in an instant the two were exchanging blows at each other. Delucchi having been worsted in the affray hurried into the Amador hotel, secured a revolver and reappeared threatening his opponent, who again turned on the shift boss and disarmed him after a struggle, in which Delucchi is accused of biting his combatant on the chin.
At this juncture, George Kakich entered the wrangle, because as he said he objected to see his comrade being bitten by Delucchi. John Coffman, who was a witness of the entire fight, objected to Kakich mixing into the trouble, and he also flourished a revolver to scare Kakich away.

The fighters were subdued after much argument, when Lopez and Kakich went before the local justice and swore out complaints of assault with deadly weapons against Coffman and Delucchi, who were released on bonds of $500 each for a preliminary hearing.

Doctor Secures Office

Dr. Blake Franklin, who has located his offices in the Kay building, will leave for San Francisco on Monday next, to secure the necessary articles for fitting up a permanent office in this city.

He will return in a few days. His office hours will be from 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m. daily, residence at National hotel.

Lad Has Operation

Amiel Sanguinetti, the 13 year old son of Mr and Mrs Lawrence Sanguinetti of Jackson, was removed to the Sutter Creek sanitarium on Tuesday last.

The lad underwent an operation for tuberculosis of the bone in his left leg this morning. He had been given medical attention for several months, but the disease stubbornly resisted all treatment of this kind, and an operation was decided upon to reach the seat of the trouble, and effect a cure. The trouble is supposed to have had its origin in a sprain several months ago, when the lad wrenched his knee.

Insane from Sickness

Nich Kukovich, a resident of Amador, was brought to the county seat on Thursday morning and confined in the insane ward under the hall of records, as a dangerously insane victim.

Kukovich had been taken care of by relatives for several months past, but became so bad as to warrant his being locked up to prevent him from doing injury to himself and others.

Illness of long duration is said to be the cause of the unfortunate man's present condition.

Married in Jackson

Miss Lulu M. Harding of Jackson was united in marriage to Marion L.
Hawley of Vernalis, San Joaquin county, on Tuesday morning, September 1st, by Rev. Thos. H. Nicholas of the Methodist Episcopal church. The marriage ceremony was performed at the Barrett residence, only a few of Miss Harding's relatives being present. The couple will go to Marin county to reside.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Harmony and Enthus- iasm Mark Meeting of Delegates

The republican county convention met in the superior court room in Jackson, on Saturday, August 27th.
The meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock by C. E. Richards, secretary of the county central committee. The first business announced was the appointment of a temporary chairman and temporary secretary. On motion duly made and seconded, C. E.
Richards was appointed temporary chairman and T. D. Davis was appointed temporary secretary.

A motion was made by Mr McKenney, seconded and carried that a committee of five, one from each township be appointed as committee on permanent organization, and order of business.

A motion by R. Webb was carried that a committee of five, one from each township be appointed as a committee on platform and resolutions.

A committee on permanent organization and order of business was also moved.

On motion a recess of twenty-five minutes was taken, to allow the chairman to appoint the members of the various committees.

On reassembling, chairman announced the appointment of the following committees:

On permanent organization and order of business, C. H. McKinney, chairman; Chas. Shields, E. F. Greenough, James Giannini, H. E. Kay.

The committee on credentials were composed of Scott Andross, chairman; Dr. Schacht, James Giannini, Wm.
Lane and Chas. Shields.

The committee on platform and resolutions were R. Webb, chairman;

Killed Two Bears

W. H. Blakeley was down from his mountain range early this week. His range is on Doak's ridge, along Tiger creek. He reports having captured two bears during the season, one last week, and the other two weeks before that. Both were caught by a trap.
Each weighed between 400 and 500 pounds. Nearly every season one or more of this big game are caught on the range.

Peter Jonas Laid to Rest

Peter Jonas was laid to rest from his late residence in Volcano on Tuesday last. Jonas was a pioneer miner and passed his 81st milestone of life.
He leaves a son, Peter I. Jonas, who is married and conducts a business in Volcano, to mourn his death.

Will Hold Supper

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church of Jackson are arranging for a supper that will be given in the Odd Fellows banquet hall, on September 15 next.

The ladies will have for sale many useful articles, ice cream, cake and other appetizing food will be on sale.
The proceeds of the supper will be used in helping defray the current expense of the church.

Rev. Nicholas announces that he expects to be changed to another charge at the coming conference, which meets on the last week in September.

Presented With Badge

As a mark of esteem, and due appreciation of worth, Frank V.
Sanguinetti, Jackson's city marshal, was presented with a solid gold official badge by a few of his friends, on Monday evening. The workmanship on the badge is of exceptional beauty, the coat of arm of the state of California is encircled by a beautifully engraved laurel wreath, a space in the wreath is allowed at the top of the pin in which is inscribed the name "F. V. Sanguinetti," and at the bottom corresponding is the inscription, "City Marshal," bending out over the state seal, at the top of the badge is a magnificent likeness of an eagle, with spread wings and head bent in a watchful attitude. On the back of the pin is engraved, "presented by friends, 1910."

Mr Sanguinetti extends through our columns his heartiest appreciation of the kindness thus bestowed upon him.

MONUMENT UNVEILED

Impressive Services at Plymouth Last Sunday

On Sunday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock a monument was unveiled at Plymouth, in respect to the miners, who lost their lives in the Fremont mine November 30 1907, when many souls were sent into eternity by a fire which broke out in the mine.

Hon. Fred V. Wood of Jackson, officiated at the services, and opened the exercises at the graves with an address in which he lauded the miners, and extended his sympathy to the bereaved families. The address was delivered in the tender, impressive manner which has won for the judge the vast circle of friends he now holds, and brought tears to the eyes of many.

The Plymouth choir rendered the song, "Lead kindly light," after which Father Travena prayed for the departed souls.

H. E. Potter, who through his untiring efforts succeeded in having the monument erected, addressed the assemblage, and announced the receipts and expenditures of the undertaking.
The monument and its erection cost $410 50, and the balance unpaid amounts to $38 39.

The Fremont mining company contributed $150, the ore $50, the Keystone $21, Fremont miners $114 50 and general subscription, $75.

Standing besides the huge rock which was draped with the American flag and held thereto with white ribbons, were little Misses Regine O'Brien and Evelyn Wilson, orphan daughters of the unfortunate victims.
The judge tenderly announced the unveiling, and the little Misses untied the ribbons and removed the colors, revealing the monument on which is appropriately inscribed the history of the disaster, as follows: "Died in the Fremont mine disaster, November 30, 1907, L. E. Wilson, James Drew, O.
Zanzucchi, V. Mazzetti, D. O'Brien, Joseph Manley, Tedy Buzolich and Luigi Mann". The Plymouth choir rendered another song, "Nearer my God to Thee" followed by a concluding prayer by Father Travena. The services were fairly attended by people from all over the county. Mrs O'Brien and Mrs Wilson, widows of the deceased miners were present with their families. Mrs O'Brien was left with four children, all of whom were present, and Mrs Wilson, who has a family of eight, was present with five of her children. To these the services were especially pathetic, as it reopened the wounds which time had healed, and brought anew the pangs of mental suffering caused by the dreadful disaster.

Slowly Improving

Wm. Tam returned from San Francisco on Thursday of last week. He has been doctoring for the past five weeks at the German hospital in the city for a rheumatic affection. He has submitted to every sort of treatment, x-ray, hot baths and everything else that held out any hope of relief, but all to little purpose. The disease affects every part of his body. He is glad to get home. He is able to get to the store, but is not able to walk around much.

Kitchen Shower

Mr and Mrs Wm. Green, who were recently married, were given a surprise on Sunday evening last by a large host of friends. The occasion was termed a kitchen shower, as every kind of kitchen utensil that is in modern use, was presented to the couple. The newly weds had been boarding at the Globe hotel, and just completed fixing the home in which they now live on north Main street.

Dance Enjoyed

A social dance was given in Love's hall, Jackson, on Monday, August, 29 at 9 p. m., by Mr D. J. Burke in honor of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr and Mrs Farley Drew Caminetti, who were recently married in Sacramento. Moore's orchestra furnished the music. About fifty couple were present, and dancing was continued until midnight, when the guests, after extending congratulations and wishing the newly weds continued happiness, departed for their homes.

MINE NEWS ALONG LODGE

Interesting Accounts of Mines Located In Amador Co.

Lincoln Consolidated.

At this mine they are making rapid headway in the preliminary work.
They have cleared the shaft to the water level, a distance of 150 feet.
They are putting in an electric pump, for the rapid unwatering of the shaft, which is 2000 feet in depth. The pumping plant will be in working order in the course of a few days. It is expected that it will take several weeks before the shaft is free of water, much depending of course, on the condition of the shaft, whether caves have occurred therein or choked with decayed timbers. Those interested in this property are much gratified over the progress made thus far, and feel confident that a paying mine will be developed within the boundaries of the land acquired by the present company.

South Eureka.

It is reported that mining operations at this mine will be suspended next month, so as to enable necessary repairs to be made to the shaft. These repairs will probably take all of three months to complete. During this time the mill will be at a standstill most, if not all, of the time. It is contemplated, however, to continue the payment of the monthly dividends of three cents per share, as the surplus in the treasury is deemed ample to meet this outlay. By the time the shaft repairing is completed the full milling capacity of the company will be ready to drop, and the stockholders expect increased dividends thereafter.

Fremont

This mine is pegging along satisfactorily. A surplus is being accumulated and the stockholders are looking for the return of the dividend paying era. Since the fatal fire in the shaft, which occurred in November, 1907, the stockholders have been without dividends.

Fred Eudey one of the directors of the company, informs us that at the meeting of the directors held last week it was decided to resume the payment of dividends, at the rate of two cents per share per month, the same rate that was paid previous to the fire.
The first dividend on this order was paid on the 29th inst. There are 200, 000 shares, so the amount disbursed each month will amount to $4000. The surplus in the treasury is in the neighborhood of $100,000. The mine is looking well, and everything indicates that the present rate of dividends will be continued indefinitely.

Moves from Jackson

Mrs M. Williams and son George left yesterday morning for San Luis Obispo county, with the intention of making their home there. George intends entering the state polytechnic school, and taking a thorough course of training in one of the trades or professions taught there.

Mitchell Leaves Hospital

John Mitchell, who underwent an operation for strangulated hernia at the county hospital about a week ago, has left the institution practically well. Mitchell was in a serious condition previous to the operation, and his life was despaired of for a time.
Dr. Endicott performed the operation, and was assisted by Dr. Griffin.

Wedding Announcement

Cards were sent out by Mrs Steve Rose announcing the marriage of her daughter, Loretta Mae to Arthur Stanley James, to be solemnized on Wednesday, September 7th, at their home on Stasal Ave., Jackson, at 6 a.
m. After the ceremony the couple expect to take a honeymoon trip along the coast, and be away for several weeks.

The marriage will be performed by Rev. Thos. H. Nicholas of the Methodist church, of which church Miss Rose is a zealous worker.

Miss Winnie Dufrene and Julia Perano will act as bridesmaid and groom. The bride will be given away by her uncle, W. D. Dufrene.

REPUBLICAN PARTY WILL STAND PAT.

Some democratic expounders are trying to create the impression that the republican party is gradually but surely drifting toward the democratic position, particularly on the tariff question. Nothing could be further from the truth. The agitation now going on within republican ranks for a further revision of the tariff schedule will not land the party one whit nearer the democratic doctrine on that issue. Tariff rates were never intended as a fixity. They are intended to change with changing circumstances. The conditions confronting the country to-day require a different schedule of duties to that which met the conditions of twenty years back. But republican revision of the tariff has been, and will be, conducted along protection lines—the protection of the home manufacturers and American wage-earners. The mere raising of revenue is subordinate to and controlled by the policy of protection. The democratic notion is radically different. We present the following, taken from a democratic exchange, as embodying the views of that party on this issue:

1. Government should never collect one penny more of revenue than necessary to administer its affairs with rigid economy.
2. The lowest rate that will yield the greatest amount of revenue should be imposed.
3. Luxuries should always bear the highest revenue duties.
4. Experience has vindicated the wisdom of ad valorem duties as being the correct practice.
5. Revenue duties should be so laid as to operate with equality throughout the union, discriminating neither for nor against any class or section.
6. Absolute necessities should go on the free list.
7. There should be imposed a revenue duty on practically all imports, with certain exceptions. These exceptions should be determined by the test: Imports coming in competition with trust controlled products should be placed on the free list, and articles of absolute necessity should be imported free of duty.

There is the platform of tariff for revenue only. What a shaking up—or rather shaking down—of our industrial system would ensue if such a tariff policy were adopted. All necessities of food, clothing, etc.—no matter whether coming into competition with native products and labor or not—to be admitted free. Imagine the Cogie's armies that would be set in motion by the inauguration of such a revenue scheme.

A DOUBTFUL REFORM.

We notice some agitation in favor of a shorter ballot. The primary ballot of the republicans at the recent election was a long-drawn-out unweildy affair, it is true, owing to the number of aspirants for almost every office to be filled. The voters were confused at the multiplicity of candidates, most if not all of whom were personally unknown to the great majority of electors. It was inevitable that much of the voting was of the blind order. This is perhaps responsible for the desire for a curtailment of the ballot. A shorter ballot means a reduction of the number of offices to be filled by the electors. It cannot mean a limitation of the number of candidates for each office to be voted for. Such a proposition would be scouted as an infringement of individual rights. We are therefore driven to the conclusion that the notion of a shorter ballot means the transfer of some of the state offices now filled by election to the appointive system. It aims to take the offices out of the hands of the people and place them in the hands of the governor. We do not believe that such an arrangement would prove popular. The people are jealous of their rights. They may not always vote understandingly but that is a poor excuse for the limitation of their privileges as electors. The autocratic power in the distribution of official plums by appointment is not in urgent need of enlargement, and any attempt in that direction would not be likely to command popular approval.

Many years ago a local speaker at a republican meeting held in Jackson described the democratic party as "a conglomerated mass of miscellaneous associations." We think the description may be not inaptly applied to the platform adopted beforehand by the democratic convention of this county held recently. The only noticeable omission is the absence of the customary bouquet to "that peerless orator and champion of democratic principles, William J. Bryan." The distinguished Nebraskan has evidently fallen from grace.

SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY

Reported weekly for the Ledger

A New Training—Science in Carpentry—The Combination Turbine—Balloon Anchoring—The Route-Recording Compass—Radium in Cancer—Wooden Gasbags—The Farmer's Power—Mechanical Swimming.

A curious school of gunnery, training sportsmen in the art of shooting small game, has been established at Mans, France, by Mousseaux, a dealer in firearms. Its chief features is a circular field, on one side of which the pupils are stationed, while on the other side cardboard models are moved about by special apparatus, and are made to imitate very closely the varied natural movements of the animals represented. Rabbits run along the edge of the field, quail rise suddenly, and partridges start up on one side and then on the other. For beginners the cardboard targets are given simple horizontal or vertical motions, but as skill is acquired the imitation animals are made to follow very confusing paths of straight lines, curves and angles. A system of registering the hits shows the progress made by the embryo hunters.

With the diversifying of the uses of timber, the value of the material is no longer gauged merely by length and width and straightness of grain. A building authority points out that one industry calls for wood having hardness; another, for elasticity; and a third, for ease of working or resistance to destructive agencies. In determining suitability for many purposes, longitudinal and transverse sections are examined under the compound microscope. For the solidity and resistance required in much carpentry, fine grain and thick-walled cells are suitable, and wood showing poorly defined starch-filled cells must be rejected.

The Corthesy turbine combines the use of gas and steam, avoiding the difficulty of overheating from the practically continuous explosions, and augmenting the explosive power by the energy of steam from the full amount of heat generated by the explosions. It is claimed that 50 to 60 per cent of fuel will be saved.

The airship anchor of Capt. Tuchs suggested by the disaster to the Zepelin passenger airship consists of an upright shaft with four arms hinged to it, and opens and shuts like an umbrella. It can be used where the ground is sufficiently free from rocks to permit the boring of a hole 6 to 10 feet deep. A good drill makes such a hole in 5 or 10 minutes, and the closed anchor is lowered to the bottom, when a pull on the cable attached to the airship unfolds the arms and causes their prongs to take hold upon the earth. Anchors can be made of any size, one weighing 125 pounds penetrating into the earth about 6 feet around the hole, and embracing a mass of earth of a weight of 5 to 10 tons. The apparatus is so constructed that on drawing a number of bolts the arms can be detached from the shaft while underground, and in 1 to 3 minutes the parts can all be drawn separately from the earth, to be reassembled for use on the next occasion. Secured only by the bow, the airship can turn securely on its pivot, keeping always in the position offering least resistance to the wind. The anchor is suitable also for sailing vessels in shallow water, and may be used for holding large tents, trees being felled, and other purposes.

The new ship's compass of Commandant Heit, a French officer, is designed to register automatically the route over which a ship passes, and gives reliable evidence of the manner in which the helmsman has followed instructions. By means of electric contacts, the angle of the vessel's course with the meridian is recorded once every minute. A roll of paper is moved by clockwork so that the time of each account is accurately registered, and a chart of the route traversed is constantly available for the captain's inspection.

While radium as a cancer remedy has hardly given the hoped-for results, Dr. Louis Wickham of Paris, after treating 600 cases, has concluded that the substance has real value if not a regular cure. The best and most rapid effects are obtained by combining radium with surgery. Operations are made possible that could not be attempted formerly, while other advantages are gained, and the experienced surgeon finds in radium great progress in the unequal fight against a terrible disease.

The wooden balloon of Rettig, German engineer, is made of three layers of Canadian pine—one over another—instead of the usual silk or rubber, and this curious gasbag is 400 feet long and 45 feet in diameter. Driven by two motors, each of 75 horse-power, the balloon becomes part of an airship for which much is claimed. Being a bad conductor of heat, the wood protects the inclosed gas from expansion, and it is computed that 2000 times less gas will escape than from the ordinary balloon. The aeronaut will thus be able to reach great altitudes with much less than the usual loss of gas. It is affirmed that the wooden airship can be kept in the air for weeks at a time, and as this makes it possible to make long aerial voyages, the problem of traveling across the Atlantic or the north pole by the air route seems to be solved.

Electric central power stations for farming communities have been growing in favor in Prussia within the last few years, especially in Pomerania. The aim has been to provide cheap power and light to farmers and to artisans living in the country, and the current from each station is distributed to neighboring towns, villages, estates and farms. The largest of the stations—that at Beswitz—controls a network of lines 117 miles in length. Another controls 83 miles, and there are numerous other stations already established or being built. Whole villages and small towns have been connected. Associations of landed proprietors are the chief owners, but aid has been given by the Provincial Representative Chamber.

The novel swimming machine of M. Garnier, a French engineer, is a kind of skeleton boat, weighing but ten pounds and adapted for carrying in a traveling bag. The swimmer rests on his stomach on a tube connecting two pointed metal floats, and rotates a crank by foot pedals. The tube has a keel and a fin connects the driving mechanism with the rear float. The swiveled front float carries a fin as a rudder and a hand-bar is geared to the propeller, to aid in driving. The whole serves for easy and rapid travel in water.

Deafness Can not be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars or any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best

M. E. CHURCH SHOW GOOD

Jas. J. Wright Succeeds In Undertaking to Raise Funds

An entertainment was held in Love's hall, Jackson, on Saturday evening under the auspices of the Methodist church, and proved a success both for the manner in which the casts were performed and from a financial point of view. Mr and Mrs Jas. J. Wright opened the program with a short sketch entitled, "For rent tomorrow." Although a difficult sketch for embryos, the parts were ably and interestingly executed. "A letter for the boarder" was the next sketch, and it was handled by Helen Nicholas and Laura Parker. A selection of Moore's orchestra rendered in a very charming manner received the applause of the entire house.

Mr and Mrs Wright had a talk contest which created much merriment. This was followed by Cleve Jones with a vocal solo. Mrs Jas. Wright recited a monologue, entitled "Behind a curtain." Inez Tam and William Schroeder in a sketch entitled "Mr Seal of North Carolina," were accorded due applause for their parts. The orchestra rendered another selection, which was followed by the final act, a playlet entitled, "The triumph of Pauline." The play is a one act sketch, and the cast of characters were Wm. Penry, jr. as John Winthrop the husband; Ernest Lemin, as Prof. Jibway, a noted scientist; Ethyl Green as Mrs Pauline Winthrop the wife; R. S. Bierce impersonated a lady friend of the family, Rosalie Damont; and J. Wright impersonated a girl, Mary the maid; Mrs J. Wright as the family cook. The scene was in the morning room of the Winthrop home. Rosalie Damont was having tea with Mrs Winthrop, and discussing the many burglaries that had occurred in the neighborhood, the thief was described as a short, dark fellow who calls at all aristocratic homes, presented his card, and then robbed the home. While the discussion was in progress, Prof. Jibway appears at the door and is held a prisoner until the return of Mr Winthrop, who explains the situation to his brave wife. The entire show was greatly enjoyed, and the orchestra music all that could be expected. The proceeds netted from the entertainment amounted to nearly $50.

Basis of Confidence

The fact that so many prominent and distinguished business men are patrons of this bank is not in itself perhaps a sufficient reason for your becoming a patron of it until you have investigated and approved the merits of our claims to your confidence, but it is an item of sufficient importance to justify you in making an examination of our claims to merit. The basis of successful banking is capable management, and sound resources which beget public confidence. If we obtain your patronage we want your confidence to come with it.

SUTTER CREEK

Sept. 2.—Mrs Delia Trelease of Oakland is the guest of Mrs Redpath. Miss Zeta Tanner and brother Lealand returned Saturday evening from a short vacation spent in Alameda and San Francisco.

Another alarm of fire was sounded soon after the noon hour Tuesday afternoon. The blacksmithshop of D. Fraser caught fire from a spark from the forge, but the fire laddies responded quickly and it was but a few moments ere it was out.

Miss Emma Walkmeister returned the first of the week from San Jose, where she has been attending the state normal school during the summer vacation, and will resume her duties next week as teacher of the Stony Creek school.

Mrs F. Soracco and children, with her mother and sister, Mrs Brignoli and Miss Amelia Brignoli, returned last Friday evening, after several weeks' recreation at Pacific Grove.

Miss Enid returned Tuesday, after an absence of several weeks visiting friends and relatives in San Francisco and other places.

Mrs M. M. Marks returned Tuesday evening from a few weeks visit with relatives in Alameda and San Francisco.

Sutter Creek has a new physician, Dr. L. H. McLaughlin, who comes from Angels Camp and opened up his office on Broadway.

Willard Borden and bride returned Tuesday evening from a brief trip to the city and will reside in Sutter Creek, having moved into the residence of Mrs Martha Smith.

Carl Sorocco and wife and daughter, Miss Lena, left Tuesday morning to visit a week or so with relatives in San Francisco.

Mrs Kate Lambert, who has been the guest of Mrs James Riley for several days, left for her home at Mills, Sacramento county, this morning.

Last Friday morning between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock, a barn with its contents, ten tons of hay, two sets of harness, a buggy and cart, and a large shed attached to the barn were burned to the ground. It is not known how the fire originated, and when discovered, it was beyond control. A horse, usually kept in the barn, got away the evening before, otherwise it would have went with the barn. Mr Ross was out of town, and Mrs Ross and two sons on the place alone. The loss will foot up in the neighborhood of seven or eight hundred dollars.

Irvine Hall of Calaveras county has been nominated by the writing route as democratic nominee for assemblyman in this district, he having received 49 votes.

BLOOD TELLS

Good blood tells, they say, and bad blood certainly does. Poor or disordered blood tells its own story in lowered vitality loss of energy, in skin eruptions, in rheumatic pains and in a pallid or sallow appearance of the complexion. This is the season of the year when the blood is most apt to be disordered. Take

Ruhser's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla

It purifies and enriches the blood. It cures boils, pimples and other skin troubles. It expels rheumatic poison from the system. It builds up strength and energy.

HISTORY OF BRIDGE CASE

Action to Quiet Title on Big Bar Bridge Is Discussed

By favor of James Keith, the Ledger is able to present to its readers the points of defendants' brief, in the case of Angella Gardella vs county of Amador and county of Calaveras, to quiet title to the property known as the Big Bar bridge, which spans the Mokelumne river on the main road leading from Jackson to Mokelumne Hill. It will be remembered that over a year ago the proposition was made to the supervisors of the two counties interested to purchase this bridge at the price of $8000, the money to be furnished equally by each county. The question then arose that the alleged proprietress could not give a title to the property; that the bridge was public property, by virtue of the original franchise to collect toll having expired years ago, notwithstanding the fact that the supervisors of Calaveras county had attempted to grant a new franchise to collect toll thereon, which so-called franchise has not yet expired. Under these conditions Mrs Gardella brought suit to quiet title to this bridge, with the view of thereby paying the way for the completion of the purchase. The case was heard in the superior court of Calaveras county some months ago, and was ordered submitted on briefs. The brief of the defendant, compiled entirely, we understand, by the district attorney of Calaveras county, was filed August 29th.

It is a voluminous document of 53 typewritten pages. It set forth that Big Bar bridge, ever since the expiration of the franchise granted in 1862, has been and now is a free public highway; that the action of the board of supervisors of Calaveras in granting the franchise to plaintiff thereafter was without warrant of law, and that plaintiff has no title or interest in or to said Big Bar bridge, nor to the roads connected therewith.

The briefs show that on March 24, 1862, the legislature granted to Louis Sohr & Co, the right to construct a bridge at Big Bar, and to maintain a road from Mokelumne Hill to said bridge, and from said bridge to the village of Butte in Amador county, and upon the completion of said bridge the privilege was granted to collect tolls thereon for the period of twenty years, the rates to be determined annually by the board of supervisors of Calaveras county. The statute allowed one year for the completion of the bridge, so that the privilege to collect toll expired on or before March 25, 1883. Toll was collected by Sohr long after that date. In October, 1885, on petition of the citizens and taxpayers of Mokelumne Hill, the supervisors of Calaveras county declared the bridge and approached thereto a free public highway.

In February, 1886, Sohr & Co. commenced suit in Calaveras county to annul this action to the supervisors. After hearing, the court rendered the following judgment:

"The action of the board of supervisors of Calaveras county, in declaring the Big Bar bridge and the road leading thereto in Calaveras county a free bridge and road, was in excess of their authority, and the judgment is that the proceedings of the board in the matter must be annulled."

The court at that time expressed doubts as to the correctness of the decision, and advised that the matter be appealed to the supreme court. No appeals was taken, but in July, 1886, a compromise was effected whereby Sohr & Co were granted a license to collect tolls until October 1886.

Before the expiration of this license Sohr & Co. sold their interests to H. Tripp and Frank Littlefield, who in the following year sold to G. B. Sanguinetti, who in the succeeding year sold to Joseph Gardella, who held the same until his death in 1891. Thereafter, the bridge property was by decree of distribution granted by the superior court of Amador county given to the plaintiff, Angella Gardella, and her four children.

Without further license, upon the filing of a bond each year, tolls were collected from travelers over the bridge until October, 1898.

In that year Mrs Gardella petitioned the board of supervisors of Calaveras county for a franchise to collect tolls on this bridge for a period of thirty years, which petition was granted, and an ordinance to that effect was passed, and since then the rates of toll have been annually fixed, and the bond of Mrs Gardella duly filed.

In 1898 Mrs Gardella made extensive repairs on said bridge, together with reconstruction work, the cost thereof amounting to $3190.

In 1904 plaintiff made further extensive repairs amounting to $2915.35.

Not a Drop of Alcohol

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that increases the strength or tone of the whole system. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Name the best "tonic and alterative"? Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Ask your own doctor all about it. Never take a medicine doctors cannot endorse. T. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Without daily action of the bowels poisonous products must be absorbed. Then you have impure blood, biliousness, headache. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills for constipation.

The estimated value of Big Bar bridge, after these repairs were made, was according to sworn statement of plaintiff, $3000.

The average annual income for the period of 21 years during which plaintiff has been interested was about $800 and the annual disbursements to $280, exclusive of the repairs of 1898 and 1904.

In 190 Mrs Gardella offered to sell the bridge to the counties of Amador and Calaveras, and negotiations were entered into to that end. The question of title arose, and further action in the matter was deferred until the determination of this title was settled by the court.

The defendant's brief treats the subject very lucidly. The main reliance of the plaintiff seems to be that the franchise granted by the supervisors in 1898 was a new franchise, which they had power to grant in a case where the expense of maintenance at public expense was deemed too great for the counties. An attempt was made at the trial to show that the franchise was granted in each county for this reason, supervisor Roberts of Calaveras and A. B. McLaughlin of Amador were permitted to testify on this line, but the records are entirely silent on the matter.

sinking fund at that time, and thereupon and before the tenth day of December following, give notice by public advertisement to be inserted twice a week for two weeks in two newspapers published in the county of San Francisco, and also in one newspaper published in the city of San Diego, and also in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles, stating the number of bonds so drawn, and the principal of said bonds will be paid on presentation to the treasurer on or before the second day of January, following, and that from and after such last named date all interest upon bonds thus drawn shall cease, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer as soon as said bonds so drawn by lot are surrendered to him and paid to cancel the same, and the interest coupons thereon, and each year, beginning with the year nineteen hundred and fifty, the said treasurer, in the manner aforesaid, proceed to draw by lot such an amount of bonds as shall be requisite to exhaust as nearly as may be the amount in said sinking fund, and proceed in the manner hereinabove stated. After the payment of all said bonds, the surplus or balance remaining in said sinking fund, if any there be, shall, forthwith, be paid into the sinking fund, at governing market rates, after advertising the sale thereof in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of bonds hereby authorized to be issued, and shall use the proceeds for the payment of such bonds as may be drawn by lot, and at the maturity of said bonds outstanding shall pay and redeem said matured bonds, with interest, out of said moneys in said fund in extinguishment of said bonds on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 6. The state controller and the state treasurer shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen thereof.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to pay the interest of said bonds, when the same falls due, out of the sinking fund provided for in this act, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 8. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and ten, as to all its provisions, except those relating to the necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 9. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be held in the month of November, nineteen hundred and ten, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon, and at the end thereof, the words, "For the San Diego seawall act," and in a separate line under the same words, "Against the San Diego seawall act," and opposite said lines there shall be left spaces in which the voters may make or stamp a cross to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the San Diego seawall act," and all those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the San Diego seawall act." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Sec. 10. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election, as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as here provided, and shall be irrevocable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

Sec. 11. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next proceeding the general election to be held in the month of November, nineteen hundred and ten, the costs of publication shall be paid out of the San Diego harbor improvement fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 12. The state controller and state treasurer are hereby directed to transfer from any moneys paid into the San Diego seawall fund under the provisions of this act to the general fund of the State of California, any and all sums of money theretofore transferred from said general fund to the San Diego seawall fund, together with interest on said moneys from the date of transfer at the rate of four per cent per annum.

Sec. 13. This act may be known and cited as the "San Diego seawall act of 1909."

to its doctrines, compelling from the justice and equity of its position, the advocacy of many thereof by the leading advocates of the republican party in the effort to revive public confidence in its organization. The people too, irrespective of party, after deeply purchased experience in increased cost of living and other ways, have signified their approbation of the principal governmental policies of the democratic party.

In this state and in this campaign, the banner of reform by consistent and continued effort based on fundamental doctrines of the party—not the growth or promise of a day, or a campaign—is held high by that staunch and consistent advocate of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," the brilliant statesman and faithful and fearless friend of the masses—Theodore A. 14. In this congressional district, the principles herein enunciated and hopes of the people for the termination of Cannonism and Aldrichism in national affairs, are centered on John E. Raker, the people's choice for congressman.

They were nominated at the people's forum, not in convention, nor by political bosses, and are entitled under the rule of the majority, to the support of all who took part in the contest.

16. It points with pride to the conduct of the democratic county and township officials and commends them for the faithful and efficient manner in which they have conducted their respective offices, and it pledges the present county and township nominees of the party, if elected, to a like faithful and efficient public service and also to an economical administration of public affairs.

And finally, it takes pleasure in approving the course of the democratic press of the county and state for its work in behalf of the people and good government, and especially recommends, not only in this campaign, but thereafter, the support of democratic press by the members of the party, as one of the most efficient methods of righting public abuses and of introducing needed reforms in the administration of the government.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM
Large Variety of Timber
Used as Reform
Planks

August 20, 1910.
Mr Chairman: The committee on platform reports as follows:

1. The democracy of Amador county in convention assembled endorses the declaration of principles adopted at the democratic state conference held at San Francisco, California, January 8th, 1910, and pledges its legislative nominees to a faithful adherence thereto.

2. It declares for the selection of United States senators by direct vote of the people and favors such constitutional amendments and changes in the laws, by the nation and the state, as will make the choice of the majority of the qualified voters of a state the senatorial representative thereof in the senate of the United States.

3. It declares in favor of primary election laws based upon equal rights to all citizens and all political parties free from conditions hampering free exercise of the will of the people. It is opposed to any law that destroys the secrecy of the ballot, either at the primary or the general election. It pledges its legislative candidates to use all honorable means to amend the present primary election law in consonance with this declaration and in such other ways as will guarantee freedom of action to the citizens and protect the integrity of political parties.

4. It declares in favor of the doctrine that the people must and shall rule the political destinies of the republic and its component parts. To this end corporate interests and influences, whose effect on government is inimical to the general welfare, must be banished from interference with, or control of, political parties, as well as of the various departments of government, national, state and local.

5. It declares in favor of the necessary amendments to the constitution and enactment of laws that will secure to the people, the right of the initiative, the referendum and the recall, thus placing in the hands of the electorate the government of the country, in fact as well as in theory.

6. It denounces the subservency of the present board of railroad commissioners to the interests of the transportation companies doing business in California and holds up to public scorn the refusal and failure of such board to obey the request of the last legislature to investigate the so-called "ten per cent raise in freight charges," which became effective January 1, 1909, and also the exorbitant express rates made by Well's Fargo & Company. In this connection and to illustrate what can and what ought to have been done in California, the success of state commissions in other states, in securing material reduction of railroad and express rates, is cited.

7. It declares against the proposed bonding of the state for eighteen million dollars to construct a highway from the north to the south boundary of California as a proposition that will not inure to the benefit of the producing classes, nor give, where all the property of the state is taxed uniformly for the purpose, the highway privileges thereunder that ought to obtain equally in all counties of the commonwealth.

7a. It favors a state law providing aid for highways on the plan in force in some of the eastern states and outlined in the report of the state engineer to the last session of the legislature, whereby the state would bear three fifths and the counties two fifths of the construction and maintenance of principal highways connecting two or more counties, and the reverse, where the highways only connects important points in a county.

8. It favors legislation declaring the to old Amador and Nevada wagon road, running from Pine Grove, in Amador county, to Woodfords, in Alpine county, connecting with existing stateroads, a state highway; and pledges its nominees for the legislature, to use their utmost efforts in this behalf.

9. It declares in favor of the enactment of national legislation based upon the "Scott Law," and the "Geary Bill," given the people by democratic congresses, for the exclusion of all Asiatic laborers and other undesirable, come they from Asia or any of the adjacent islands, and be they Chinese, Japanese, Malays, Coolies, Hindus, or any other class of the similar people inhabiting that part of the world.

10. It denounces the report recently made by labor commissioner Mackenzie to and received without comment by, the present state administration, on the subject of Japanese laborers in this state, as a slander on our people, and as a premeditated effort to favor that class of our citizenship who want cheap labor and sustain the position taken by some officers of our federal and state governments on the Japanese question.

11. It declares in favor of school legislation that will improve and make more noticeable our educational system, and bring nearer to the people the benefits of higher educational facilities to the end that residents of the interior need not send their children to distant cities, beyond parental control, to secure privileges they are entitled to at home.

12. It declares in favor of increased aid from the state for secondary schools and for higher salaries to teachers in all schools.

13. It observes with satisfaction the growing tendencies in favor of the cherished principles of democracy throughout the land—notably on the tariff, control of corporations and rate regulation of railroads—and also the awakening of the people to a just realization of their rights. It believes however, that the reforms necessary to restore to the people the privileges guaranteed by the Declaration of Independence and the constitution, can be more speedily and more effectually secured, at the hands of the democratic party, that has, whether in victory or defeat, remained steadfast to its doctrines, compelling from the justice and equity of its position, the advocacy of many thereof by the leading advocates of the republican party in the effort to revive public confidence in its organization. The people too, irrespective of party, after deeply purchased experience in increased cost of living and other ways, have signified their approbation of the principal governmental policies of the democratic party.

In this state and in this campaign, the banner of reform by consistent and continued effort based on fundamental doctrines of the party—not the growth or promise of a day, or a campaign—is held high by that staunch and consistent advocate of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," the brilliant statesman and faithful and fearless friend of the masses—Theodore A. Bell—the next governor of California.

14. In this congressional district, the principles herein enunciated and hopes of the people for the termination of Cannonism and Aldrichism in national affairs, are centered on John E. Raker, the people's choice for congressman.

15. It cheerfully endorses and ratifies the nominations recently made by the members of our party for state district, county and township officers and it appeals to the voters to give them favorable consideration at the polls. They were nominated at the people's forum, not in convention, nor by political bosses, and are entitled under the rule of the majority, to the support of all who took part in the contest.

16. It points with pride to the conduct of the democratic county and township officials and commends them for the faithful and efficient manner in which they have conducted their respective offices, and it pledges the present county and township nominees of the party, if elected, to a like faithful and efficient public service and also to an economical administration of public affairs.

And finally, it takes pleasure in approving the course of the democratic press of the county and state for its work in behalf of the people and good government, and especially recommends, not only in this campaign, but thereafter, the support of democratic press by the members of the party, as one of the most efficient methods of righting public abuses and of introducing needed reforms in the administration of the government.

Scott Andross James Giannini, T. D. Davis and F. Werner.

Moved by Schacht, seconded and carried that the chairman appoint a committee of three from the county at large to recommend delegates to the state convention.

On motion an adjournment was taken till 1:30 p. m.

The convention reassembled at 1:30 p. m., the first order of business was the appointment of the committee to recommend delegates to the state convention.

The chairman named F. Werner, Wm. Lane, and C. W. Schacht as members of this committee.

The report of the committee on credentials was read by the chairman W. S. Andross, after the addition of the name of E. F. Greenough as delegate from north Ione, the report was adapted.

The report of the committee on platform and resolutions was read by chairman of the committee Richard Webb. On motion by C. H. McKenney, the report was amended by striking out section 6. The report as amended was then adopted. The report of the committee appointed to recommend delegates to the state convention was read, recommending C. H. McKenney, Jos. Datson and Fred Eudey. Mr Eudey asked that his name be withdrawn. McKenney and Datson were placed in nomination by J. W. Caldwell. Dr. Gall was placed in nomination by R. Webb. Jos. Datson asked to withdraw his name. On motion by R. Webb, C. H. McKenney and Dr. A. M. Gall were chosen delegates to the state convention.

Moved seconded and carried that the delegates be assessed one dollar each to defray expenses of the campaign.

After a short recess the various townships selected their members of the county central committee, the members selected were: Township one, H. E. Kay and Dr. Schacht; township two, Dr. Woolsey, E. F. Greenough; township three, C. Wilson, Clarence Bradshaw; township four, O. E. Martin, Wm. Burris; township five, A. McWayne, Chas Shields.

The convention then referred back to the election of delegates to the state convention, and on motions duly made and carried, the following alternates were selected: Jos. Datson, alternate for Dr. Gall, and James Davis, alternate for C. H. McKenney.

On motion the chairman of the convention was granted 10 days in which to appoint a campaign committee of six members, one from each township and one from the county at large. A resolution was introduced by R. Webb and adopted by the rising vote of the convention expressing regret at the death of Judge Rust, and thanking Gov. Gillett for appointing so able a judge as the successor of Judge Rust, the honorable Fred V. Wood. It was moved that when the convention adjourns it do so subject to the call of the chairman.

Remarks by C. H. McKinney and Richard Webb declaring that the party ticket was equal to the best ever submitted to the people, and asked the full party support for all candidates. Both speakers declared that regardless of how previous differences may have been allowed to exist up to the time of the primary election, since that election it is the duty of all to indorse the ticket and vote it honestly at the coming election.

The convention then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

We, your committee on platform and resolutions, beg to submit the following:

1. We, the republicans of Amador county in convention assembled, hereby reaffirm our devotion to the principles and policies of the republican party, under the guidance of which the United States have prospered in the last 40 years as no other country or nation has prospered in the same space of time in all history. We are proud of the record carved out by our party in the past; proud to be identified with such an organization, and face the future confident of its continued supremacy.

2. We are in favor of such changes in our tariff schedule as will meet the changing conditions; always keeping in view, however, in such modifications the fundamental policy of the party—the protection of American industry and the safeguarding of American wages by so regulating the tariff schedule as to keep this end always in the foreground.

3. We indorse the administration of President Taft, and believe that he has kept faith with every pledge made in the national platform upon which he was elected.

4. We commend our representative

W. F. Englebright, congressman for this district, for his faithful service and untiring efforts in looking after the interests of his constituents in the national legislature, which should command for him the earnest and active support of all republicans for re-election to the position which he has so efficiently filled.

5. We indorse the administration of governor Gillett. He has met every duty, honestly and fearlessly, and has given the state a clean and economical administration.

6. We are in favor of the Panama Exposition of 1915 being held in San Francisco, and think the state should aid to a reasonable extent the financing of that undertaking, believing that California will reap fourfold from any contribution she may make to that laudable object.

7. We denounce the present ruinous system of the maintenance of county highways by county supervisors as road commissioners. The abuses which have grown up under that system are flagrant and notorious, and yet the system has survived legislature after legislature. We favor the correction of abuses which are so self-evident at home, as well as those further afield. It is to be regretted that our representatives in the state legislature have not been more aggressive in this direction, as it certainly offers the most desirable reform movement in local government, and has so offered for many years. We demand that our representatives in state senate and assembly use all diligence to place our road laws on a basis that will insure better returns for the money expended.

8. We indorse the nomination by direct vote of the people of Hiram Johnson as the republican candidate for governor, and also of all his brother nominees, and pledge them one and all our earnest support.

9. We commend to the voters of Amador county the candidates for legislative, county and township offices on the republican ticket. We have a list of candidates of unquestioned fitness for every position sought, and ask republican voters to stand by their nominees with their active and loyal support.

10. We favor the utmost economy, consistent with efficiency, in national, state and county government.

11. While conceding that corporations and other large interests are entitled to the equal protection of law, the same as individuals, at the same time we are opposed to the improper meddling of large moneyed concerns in the affairs of government, and approve of the position of our standardbearer in this campaign that the state government should be run by and for the people, and not by and for the corporations.

Dr Golding to Leave For a Time

Dr Golding, veterinary surgeon, who has been practicing his profession here with much success for the past six months, will be compelled to leave about the 15th of this month for San Francisco, for the purpose of receiving surgical treatment. In an accident in San Francisco before coming here, he was severely injured in the forehead. The wound has never completely healed and to have proper attention he has been advised to go to the city. He expects to be away three months at least. Those having need of his professional services should bring their animals to be treated at once. He intends to return to this field, in which he has built up quite a practice, and has the confidence of his patrons, but he cannot tell how long it may be before he is able to get back.

Brush Fires.

A large grass and brush fire has been raging for several days two or three miles to the east of Jackson. It has destroyed a large quantity of dry feed on the ranches of Oneto, A. Caminetti, Molino, and others. It is still burning fiercely on both sides of the middle fork of Jackson creek. A force of between ten and twenty men is fighting the flames. The Indian reservation has been partially fire swept. The damage already done is considerable, but it is believed to be fairly under control at last reports.

Many Guests at Wedding

A beautiful wedding ceremony was preformed at 18 Water street yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. Alexander Janonsky, who is detailed in charge of Jackson and Angels Camp churches of the Greek Catholic faith.

The contracting parties were Miss Sareta Curaica and Theodore Church, both of Jackson, and residing at the place where they were married. Miss Ameliat Dragolovich was the bridesmaid, and Lazar Radovich best man. Preparations for the event had been in progress for some time back, and nothing was lacking when the appointed time arrived. A sumptuous feast followed, and was a prominent feature of the celebration. A large porker and sheep were roasted at Dal Porta's bakery for the occasion and served in a style fit for the palate of a king. The entire evening was spent pleasantly by the invited guests, who numbered over 100.

Democratic Resolutions

Resolutions on A. Caminetti, introduced by Dr. E. E. Endicott adopted unanimously:

Resolved, that the delegates to the democratic county convention of Amador county held this 20th day of August, 1910, hereby take pride in indorsing the course pursued by Senator A. Caminetti, in and for the state senate during the present term of service and we recognized him as one of the leading statesmen of the commonwealth, and to that we give him credit for being the organizer of much and useful and needed legislation and pioneer organizations of reform which have received the approval of the democratic party of the state and of other political organizations.

Be it further resolved, that we recommend him most heartily to our voters of the 10th senatorial district for re-election to the district office of he now holds.

Card of Thanks.

In behalf of all those who suffered bereavement in the Fremont fire disaster of three years ago, we desire to return thanks to H. E. Potter for his untiring efforts in securing a monument in memory of those who perished in that disaster, to all who contributed to the monument fund, and also to those who assisted in the unveiling ceremonies.

Sandstone Industry

Between forty and fifty men are to be given steady employment in this city by the Ione Sandstone Company, which is to make Sacramento its permanent distributing point for all places where it can market its product. The company is to have its works located temporarily on the sand lot just north of I street. It will be prepared to move to permanent quarters, however, when the Southern Pacific Company builds its new passenger depot upon the site.

The company owns five quarries of desirable building rock near Ione, Amador county. From one of the quarries is obtained a pure white sandstone, which resembles closely the Cahen stone of France. It makes a handsome material for finishing a building. From another quarry is obtained red stone. Rock from this quarry was used in the construction of the California National Bank Building. The character of the stone is such that it is easily chiseled, and for an ornamental stone it is not surpassed. The rock is taken from the quarry in huge blocks, and almost any sized piece desired can be obtained. The company now has a seven ton piece at its works, which it proposes to exhibit at the State Fair.

The demand for the stone has been heavy because of the great increase in building all over California. For this reason the company proposed to locate its works here. The rock will be shipped from the quarries to Sacramento in the rough, to be worked over and distributed in finished form.

The company is a Sacramento corporation with Dr. W. J. Hanna at its head and R. M. Beebe its secretary. H. J. Harrison of this city is also interested in it. The office is in the Ohsner building.—Sacramento News.

A Man of Iron Nerve.

Indomitable will and tremendous energy are never found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life pills, the matchless regulators, for keen brain and strong body. 25 cents at Spagnoli's drug store.

G W Weller has secured the services of Fred Friswell, of New York, who is a capable plumber and sheet-metal worker. Estimates will be furnished on such work on these lines. Give us a call.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to your self. If you are weak or run down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50 cents at Spagnoli's drug store.

Facts for Weak Women

Nine-tenths of all the sickness of women is due to some derangement or disease of the organs distinctly feminine. Such sickness can be cured—is cured every day by

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.

It acts directly on the organs affected and is at the same time a general restorative tonic for the whole system. It cures female complaint right in the privacy of home. It makes unnecessary the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so universally insisted upon by doctors, and so abhorrent to every modest woman.

We shall not particularize here as to the symptoms of those peculiar affections incident to women, but those wanting full information as to their symptoms and means of positive cure are referred to the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, newly revised and up-to-date Edition, sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only; or, in cloth binding for 31 stamps.
